

Toei Kyoto Studio Park Guide

Welcome to the Home of Japanese Movies, Toei Kyoto Studio Park (Uzumasa Eigamura)

Thank you for coming from far away. Uzumasa Eigamura (Toei Kyoto Studio Park) is the only theme park in Japan where visitors can observe the filming of period dramas. You can freely walk around a film set owned by Toei Kyoto Studio, the largest studio in Japan, that depicts a street from the Edo era (36,000㎡). In the park, numerous movies and over 200 television period dramas are filmed every year. You can truly enjoy the atmosphere of ancient Japan by taking in the acrobatic Samurai show or by dressing up like a geisha or samurai. Lots of entertainment for young and old. In this world of imagination and creation -- with so much to do and see--you will never be bored. Enjoy!
